

number one, four justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number two, three justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number three, three justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number four, four justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number five, four justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number six, three justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number seven, six justices of the peace and five constables; for election district number eight, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number nine, four justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number ten, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number eleven, three justices of the peace and one constable; for election district number twelve, three justices of the peace and four constables.

1878, ch. 55.

58. It shall not be lawful for any resident of Carroll county to be sued before any justice of the peace of said county out of the election district in which he resides; provided, however, that upon any cause of action within the jurisdiction of a justice of the peace arising in said county, any resident may be sued before a justice of the peace in the election district wherein the contract was made and such cause of action originated; and provided further, that when any cause of action shall arise in any other county or the city of Baltimore, suit may be brought before any justice of the peace in the county; and provided that where there are two or more defendants residing in different districts it shall be lawful to institute proceedings in any district in which any defendant resides.

1870, ch. 434.

59. The justices of the peace in and for Carroll, Caroline, Charles, Dorchester, Harford, Kent, Prince George's, Queen Anne's, Worcester, Anne Arundel, and Calvert counties, shall have jurisdiction over and may take cognizance of all actions of assault and battery in which the damages claimed do not exceed the sum of one hundred dollars; and also criminal jurisdiction in all cases of assault and battery committed in said counties, unless it shall appear to the said justices of the peace, upon the